Arts Council Mélange

The Arts Council is excited to share a new art exhibition in Nelson Hall. Watercolor artist, Betsy Aguirre, is currently displaying her work along the West wall with purchases benefitting Beatitudes Church. Immersed in art from an early age, Betsy's art has been widely displayed and appreciated, notably at two separate Mayo Clinic locations, Sky Harbor Airport, and the City of Glendale. Her diversity and style are a delightful addition to the Nelson Hall venue. Please take a moment to see her beautiful works up close and in person. An artist's reception will be held this Sunday, Oct. 27 after service in Nelson Hall.

Celebrate Dia de los Muertos! Beatitudes Church - All Saints Sunday - November 3

Join us Sunday, November 3, as we celebrate the lively Latin American custom of Dia de los Muertos —the Day of the Dead—a holiday celebrating the lives of the deceased with food, drink, parties, and activities the dead enjoyed in life. Dia de los Muertos recognizes death as a natural part of the human experience, a continuum with birth, childhood, and growing up to become a contributing member of the community. On Dia de los Muertos, the dead are also a part of the community, awakened from their eternal sleep to share celebrations with their loved ones.

Beatitudes Church will be arranging tables along the outdoor plaza for families to create a shrine for their departed loved ones. Portraits of departed loved ones with stand to display upright, along with any memorabilia that captures the loved one's life are encouraged. To reserve a 2.5 ft space on one of the tables, please visit www.beatitudeschurch.org/calendar to complete a table reservation form. There will also be sign-up sheets on Sunday in Nelson Hall. For those who wish only to display a portrait (with upright display stand), a community table will be available and no reservation is needed.

Ruminate: Conversations on Things That Matter

Life is complex. To keep an open mind and try to hear and understand diverse views on various issues can be overwhelming. Grab a cup of coffee and join Pastor Tony after worship on Sundays starting October 20 at 11:20 in the Patio Room for the discussion group, Ruminate: Conversations on Things That Matter. Our topic: Is the Christian Right And Their Political Aspirations Helping Drive Liberals Away From Religion?

IT'S NEVER TOO EARLY FOR THE SEASON OF GIVING

ICM FOOD DRIVE CONTINUES!

Now is a great time to show the love of Beatitudes and jumpstart the season of giving. Faith in Action is launching a food drive to benefit ICM (Interfaith Community Ministry) on Sunday, October 20 and collecting through November 17. They will be handing out empty grocery bags with a list of items to donate starting Sunday, October 20, in the foyer of Nelson Hall. If you cannot donate food stuffs, you can always make a monetary donation by check made payable to Beatitudes Church (marked for ICM in the memo) or cash (in an envelope marked for ICM) to place in the collection plate during offering at service.

BEATITUDES CHURCH
PRESENTS

Jazz Coffee House Concert Series 2020

Support Has a Vibe

And that vibe is YOU! For several years the Arts Council has brought art and music in a variety of forms and media to Beatitudes Church. From visual art exhibits to jazz music concerts, they are dedicated to enriching the life of our church and our community through the arts.

This year is no different. Starting Sunday, January 19, the annual Jazz Coffee House Concert Series begins featuring some of Arizona's most prolific jazz artists! The concert series is held January to April 2020.

Jazz concerts are held in Nelson Hall and feature relaxed performances, refreshments and talk-backs with the musicians. In the past, a $5 donation at the door was suggested to help cover the costs associated with the concerts. However, with rising production costs, sustainability may not be possible. Please consider supporting the Arts Council financially to ensure the good vibes continue! To learn more on how you can help, please contact Jeff and Carol Morse at cpianopal@cox.net.

PLEASE NOTE: Due to unforeseen circumstances, the concert schedule has changed. The concert series will not begin on November 17 as previously planned. Instead, be sure to catch the first concert of the 2020 season on Sunday, January 19, at 6:00 pm with the Tom Wakeling Quartet.

MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID AND W.I.S.E. CONFERENCE

NOVEMBER 1-2

Beatitudes Church

Despite one in five people experiencing a mental illness in any one year, the stigma around mental health issues often inclines people to keep their struggles to themselves. Over half the people suffering from a mental illness never receive professional help. But there is growing awareness of this stigma, and some faith communities are beginning to address it.

Take the United Church of Christ's Mental Health Network, for example. This non-profit progressive faith-based organization is dedicated to battling stigma and providing education through an online storehouse of information, including a step-by-step process for congregations who want to become "W.I.S.E." The acronym stands for Welcoming, Inclusive, Supportive and Engaged. Most churches strive to live up to the ideal that "all are welcome." But those who are differently abled don't always feel welcomed, understood or even seen. This is especially true of those with "hidden disabilities," such as anxiety or depression.

To break the silence around mental illness ministers and lay leaders alike have stepped forward and shared personal stories of how mental illness has impacted their families. For example, Rev. Sarah Griffith Lund, the keynote speaker of the upcoming November event, wrote a memoir (Blessed Are The Crazy) in which she candidly describes her father's Bipolar Disorder and a traumatized cousin later convicted of murder and sentenced to death. Those relationships resulted in her serving as the Chaplain to her cousin on death row. The November training features a keynoted address by Rev. Lund, followed by workshops on topics ranging from suicide prevention to being a "companion," meaning how to be a supportive, non-judgmental presence for someone who is experiencing mental illness. The weekend begins with an 8 hour training on "Mental Health First Aid" on Friday evening (Nov. 1st), followed by the Saturday, Nov. 2nd WISE day featuring a keynote address and workshops.

CLM COOKIE CUPBOARD

Are you a baker? CLM Cookie Cupboard is bare and needs your goodies to serve during social hour after church. These can be store bought or homemade. You can freeze your goodies and bring them to Gayle Lawson who is always accepting donations. Thanks so much!

PLAZA GREETERS

A church greeter is the first- and last-person people see when visiting a church. But it's more than a hand shake. Greeters play a vital role in forming a visitor's first impression of our church and, to some, their first impression of Jesus. You play a significant role in ensuring that people see and experience the love of CoB. If this sounds like you, please contact Janelle Tapphorn jtapphorn@beatitudeschurch.org for further information on becoming the face of Beatitudes!

USHERS

Do you have a servant heart? Sign up to Usher today! Ushers play a vital role in our weekly service by greeting people, handing out bulletins, and helping direct people to find restrooms and locations of other campus meeting rooms, taking up the offertory collection and serving communion to our members. After service, they go through the aisles and pick up lost items and used bulletins. This is an easy way to get involved with our church as well as get to know everyone better. If you're interested in being a difference maker, please sign up by contacting Joyce Glazner at jagphxaz@q.com

VOLUNTEERING OUTSIDE BEATITUDES

ICM

ICM Food & Clothing Bank is looking for volunteers Monday – Friday from 8:45 – 11:30a.m. There are several positions open where volunteers of all ages can help. Please contact beth@icmaz.org or 602-254-7450 for more information.

FAITH IN ACTION

Faith in Action extends a grateful "thank you" to all of you who bring items regularly for Bishops Pantry. Your donations are a vital help in filling bags for our clients who come to our door every week. See list above on page 9 for items needed.

JUSTA CENTER

Justa Center serves homeless senior individuals. They are in need of donations to purchase food and volunteers to serve at the Justa Center, 1001 West Jefferson, Phoenix (SE corner of 10th Ave and Jefferson). You can make your donations to COB designating Justa Center. To volunteer, register with Doris or Pat at damcvey@cox.net
